OUTLINES.

On the 16th and 17th of July in Alaskan waters United States guards killed five Japanese poachers, wounded several and captured twelve, who had been landing from ten schooners and slaughtering seals; the Washington government has informed the Japanese government, but it is stated that no international incident is feared. ——At Pittsburg yesterday Augustus Hartje and two others were bound over for conspiracy to defame Mrs. Hartje.——In a New York court yesterday the Mutual Life Insurance Company was ordered to furnish a list of policyholders to the International Policyholders' Committee; Mr. Untemeyer, counsel for the committee, denounced the company's management for withholding the list in order to elect their own trustees.——At Chicago yesterday the Federal grand jury returned true bills against the Standard Oil Company on nineteen counts, involving fines of $380,000 if conviction follows; railroads refused to make the Standard pay storage while compelling its competitors to pay.—— Former Postmaster F. E. Coyne, of Chicago, has gone into bankruptcy because one of his employes looted his private business while he was attending to the government's business.—— Henry Miller, a former insane man from New Jersey, was arrested at Oyster Bay yesterday for trying to call on President Roosevelt.——The South Carolina Republican convention yesterday elected E. H. Deas, negro, State chairman oer John R. Tolbert, white.——Vice President Stensland, of the looted Chicago bank, has turned over $600,000 of his absconding father's property to secure the stockholders.——New York Markets: Money on call easier, ruling rate 2¾, closing bid 2¼, offered at 2½; spot cotton steady, 10.70; flour steady but quiet; wheat steady, No. 2 red, 76½ elevator; corn firm, No. 2, 57 elevator; oats firm, mixed, 38; turpentine firm, 62½ to 63; rosin steady, strained, common to good, $4.10.

We will haveto begin at the bottom and teach anti-lynching in the public schools.

Of course, President Roosevelt is not going to run for President in 1908. He is not going to take any chances.

Guess we United States people had as well give in and acknowledge that the finger of destiny is pointing at William Jennings Bryan.

In Pottsville, Pa., there is a copper cent piece that cost $100. A little girl had swallowed it and after the almost worthless coin had been located by the x-rays it was removed by an operation that was costly.

Newspaper reports from Salisbury prior to the lynching stated that a lynching fund was being raised in Rowan county, yet the authorities thought the victims of Monday night's mob could be safely taken to Salisbury.

At Salisbury Monday midnight when the three negroes murderers were hung and shot to death, some women followed up the mob and witnessed the hirrible tragedy. Those women were surely and evidently a set of morbid rubber-necks.

Trust people may send in their dollar to the Republican campaign fund like other people, but if they don't send along with it a check for a big amount the chairman of the campaign committee will wonder if their gratitude for protection favors has taken a sneak.

If the authorities, State and county, had read the newspaper gossip from Salisbury, concerning the tremendous lynching sentiment in Rowan county. they would not have taken the murderers of the Lyerly family to Salisbury without bringing a part of a regiment to protect them.

One of North Carolina's prodigies died in Currituck county this week in the person of Lewis Lewark, who fell a victim of typhoid fever. He was 27 years of age and weighed 735 pounds when in good health. Although a man of prodigious size, it is said he was the strongest and most active man in Currituck county. He has travelled all over the United States and been on exhibition at fairs and in shows.

QUI[illegible]T SALISBURY

Governor [illegible]d as to Advisability o[illegible]thdrawing of Part of Troops

ANOTHER LYNCHER JAILED

Judge Long's Caustic Remarks Upon the Affair—Sessions of Court Practically at Standstill on Account of Excitement—Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 9.—General Armfield, in command of the troops at Salisbury to protect the jail and hold any lynchers arrested, wired Governor Glenn to-day that he had 140 men under his command and that all was quiet as could be. He asked the Governor what disposition he must make of the troops The Governor telegraphed him instructions to confer with local authorities and if they thought it advisable to hold the men over in Salisbury this afternoon and night, otherwise to take steps to send the Charlotte and Statesville companies home.

The Governor had received no notice what action was taken up to the time he left this afternoon for Guilford College to address the yearly meeting of Quakers there to-morrow.

(By Associated Press.)

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 8.—Judge Long called Rowan county court to order at Salisbury at the usual hour this morning. Barring the keeping of his engagement with it at this hour, it was an unnecessary session. The grand jury has not made a presentment of the case against George Hall, who is accused of being one of the men who lynched three negroes Monday night. Another arrest, that of a man named Cross, was made today.

Judge Long was still more severe on the mob this morning. He said: "The court is informed that a kinsman of the murdered people pleaded with that band of cut throats and murderers to let the law proceed. Any man who aided in that lynching was guilty of murder in the first degree. Any man who gave encouragement by word or presence or took any part in it was guilty of murder in the first degree.

"The question now is simply whether the law shall be enforced by the courts or by a mob, and Rowan county shall to a man take a stand on that proposition. When sifted to the bottom you will find, as I have said before, that no man of character and standing was in that mob. I am going to perform my duty as I see it and have no fear. I said before I apprehended any trouble, that the law of the land is stronger than any local mob. I do not take that back, notwithstanding the shots about my ears that night. 'The mills of the Gods grind slow, but they grind exceedingly fine.'

"The honor and integrity of Rowan must be preserved."

The grand jury then retired to its deliberating room and court adjourned.

The three companies of the militia are still on duty around the jail and the city is practically under military rule, but beyond the arrests there have been no developments.

Bohannon to Raleigh.

Greensboro, August 8.—Frank Bohannon the self-confessed murderer of Foreman R. E. Beachman, with Kiser and Oscar Crutchfield, charged with complicity in the crime, were carried to Raleigh this afternoon for safe keeping. After the trouble last night Sheriff Jordan decided to remove the prisoners. A formidable guard accompanied the prisoners to the train. The negroes charged with murdering the railroad foreman were arraigned for preliminary trial to-day and Bohannon pleaded guilty.

All is quiet here this morning. Sheriff Jordan feels certain that an attack would have been made last night had the would-be-lynchers not feared a determined resistance.

Funeral of Mrs. Hill.

The remains of the late Mrs. Frederick Hill,who passed away at her home in Washington Monday, reached the city yesterday morning on the train from the north and the funeral was held at 11 o'clock from St. James' Rev. Edward Wootten and Rev. T. P. Noe officiating in the absence of the rector, Rev. R. W. Hogue. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery, the pall-bearers having been Messrs. F. A. Lord, G. W. Kidder, T. D. Meares, Iredell Meares, William Latimer and Dr. A. H. Harriss.

MR. FURLONG IS OUT

Official Announcement of His Withdrawal From Shrievalty Race in This County—Other Political Notes.

Elsewhere in to-day's paper Justice John J. Furlong gives notice that after careful consideration he has decided to withdraw from the race as a candidate before the Democratic primary for the nomination of Sheriff of New Hanover county. Justice Furlong thanks his friends for the cordial support they have given him and assures them that it is greatly appreciated. This leaves in the field for that important office Mr. S. Percy Cowan, Mr. W. H. Biddle and Col. T. C. James. who have signified their purpose to stay in the race until the finish. The primaries will be held on September 19th, and now that the situation as to the leading office before the people is not quite so complex it is expected that the several candidates will get down to hard work and that the race will be a lively one.

There is yet some uncertainty as to the race for the lower House of the next General Assembly from this county. Col. George L. Morton is thus far the only avowed candidate for the office and has been at work some time securing pledges of support. Woodus Kellum, Esq., one of the leading of the younger members of the bar, is considering the question of making the race, and Dr. N. M. Culbreth is also spoken of for the place. While Dr. Culbreth will not put himself forward as a candidate, it is believed that if Mr. Kellum decides not to run and Dr. Culbreth is asked to make the race by any influential element of the city's population he will decide to go in. It is expected that these matters will be decided definitely in a day or two. As yet New Hanover has not put forward a candidate for the State Senate, upon the strength of the talk some time ago of repudiating the agreement between New Hanover and Brunswick, by which New Hanover names the man one election and Brunswick the next. Geo. H. Bellamy, Esq., of Brunswick, has been endorsed by his county for the place and will doubtless be elected without opposition.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT

Miss Daisy Thompson Maultsby Attrac Young Bride of Mr. Roland B. Wright—Wedding Supper and Reception Followed.

A quiet home wedding, beautiful for its simplicity and the charming precision with which all the arrangements were carried out, was celebrated last night at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. B. Hand, on North Third street, joining in marriage Miss Daisy Thompson Maultsby, formerly of Whiteville, N. C., and Mr. Roland B. Wright, a popular young business man of this city. Only a few intimate friends and members of the families of the parties to the marriage vow were present, but those were sufficient in number to make a goodly company of wedding guests. The parlors of the home were attractively decorated with palms, ferns, roses and Southern smilax and the scene was a very pretty one indeed.

A wedding march, skilfully played by Miss Maye Golloway, announced the approach of the bridal party, the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Isabel McDougall, entering from the west door and the groom, with his best man, Mr. W. Hull Moore, from the south entrance. At a beautiful, improvised altar the Rev. Alexander D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, spoke the solemn words which made the couple man and wife. The ring service was used and the ceremony was very pretty indeed. The bride wore a becoming costume of white batiste and carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was charmingly attired in silk mulle and carried chrysanthemums. The gentlemen attendants wore suits of black with boutonnieres of pink chrysanthemums and ferns.

After the wedding an elegant wedding supper was served and the young people came in for many happy felicitations upon the union just formed. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will reside at No. 417 North Seventh street.

The bride is much loved in this city and in Whiteville, her former home. The groom is one of the city's popular young business men as a member of the firm of O. H. Wright & Brother, brokers on the wharf. Many friends of both join in best wishes upon their marriage.

A house well advertised is half sold.

AS TO WATER WORKS

The City's Offer of $70,000 For the Existing Plant Goes Forward To-day.

FIFTEEN DAYS ALLOWED

That is the Limit Placed on the Company to Accept or Reject the Proposition—Communication Addresed to President.

Chairman E. F. Johnson, of the Water Commission, yesterday addressed a communication to the Clarendon Water Works Company, officially making the offer of $70,000 for its plant in this city which it is hoped to acquire for the purpose of operation as a municipal institution. The action of the Water Commission in making the offer is with the approval of the Board of Audit and Finance and is a bona-fide proposal in every respect. While it is not expected that the offer will be accepted by he company, as another step in the municipal ownership proposition, the reply of the Water Company will be awaited with interest.

According to the terms of the report of the Commission as adopted, the offer holds good for fifteen days and no longer and an acceptance or refusal will certainly be in hand by the 23rd of this month, in ample time for further action by the Board at its regular meeting in September. If the offer be not accepted, according to the adoption of the Commission's report, it will then be "up" to the Aldermen to take such further action as is deemed advisable. A considerable number of members of the Board have expressed their purpose in the event of the refusal of the company to accept the offer, to break off all negotiations for a purchase of the present plant and prepare at once for the installation of an entirely new system by the city. They recognize that the municipally owned plant would be in sharp competition with the established plant for a few years, but hold that the city institution could be put on a paying basis in a few years and much more economically than by paying what they regard an exorbitant price for the existing plant. On the other hand it is known there is considerable sentiment on the Board of Aldermen, in the event the Water Company does not accept the proposal submitted to submit to a disinerested appraisement of the plant by two experts from outside the State, one to be named by the city and one by the company and in the event of their inability to agree to call in a third party mutually agreeable to the two arbitrators already selected It is expected that this will be the real fight at the next meeting of the Board.

The communication submitting the proposal was addressed yesterday afternoon by Chairman Johnson to President Divine, of the Water Company, and will probably reach him to-day. Should a reply be received any time soon, a meeting of the Commisison would doubtless be called and a report would probably be made to the Board of Aldermen at a special meeting so as to consume as little time as possible. In the meantime the process of the negotiations is being watched with much interest by the people.

Real Estate Transfers.

By deeds filed for record yesterday the following real estate transfers appear: Hugh MacRae and wife to Ida McLean Black, for $10 and other considerations, property on the north side of the C. R. L. & P. Co., right of way, 462 feet east of the southeast corner of lot No. 44, in Winter Park Gardens, 66x236 feet in size. H. B. Shepard and wife to Geo. T. Shepard, for $1,000, an undivided one-half interest in place on the sound, in Harnett township. Eagle Manufacturing Company to S. L. Smith, for $1,500, property on west side of Eighth street, 132 feet north of Hanover street, 82x66 feet in size, more or less. and running along the right of way of the W. & W. Railroad.

Henry Pigford to Goldsboro.

Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox will leave to-day conveying to the hospital for the colored insane at Goldsboro an old negro named Henry Pigford, who has been confined in the county jail here. It was old man Pigford, who some time ago drew a long gun on Constable Savage when the officer went to arrest him for an assault upon a colored woman. He was for many years a family servant at the home of Col. Thos. Evans, on North Third street, near the City Hall.

IMPORTANT AFFAIRS

Merchants' Association Takes Up Matter of Accommodations for Wilmington Excursionists. Disposal Plant for City.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wilmington Merchants' Association was held yesterday afternoon, Mr. L. B. Rogers, the president, in the chair and Louis Goodman, Esq., present as secretary. Aside from an important movement, the details of which will not be given out until later, there was a general discusion of public affairs and a lively interest manifested in the work of the Association.

The matter of compelling the Consolidated Railways Light and Power Company to furnish ample accommodations for its passengers in this city was thoroughly gone into and it was decided to have the Association represented at a hearing which it is proposed to have at an early date before the Corporation Commission with reference to the matter. It will be recalled that the matter was first brought to the attention of the Commission in a letter from President Rogers, a reply having been received from Chairman McNeill, stating that he would take the matter up at once by serving notice to the Consolidated Company to make answer to the complaint at once. The Chamber of Commerce meantime took the matter up and it was considered that the railway lines entering wilmington should be made to take care of this travel in the building here of a substantial union depot. Whether there will be a division of effort on the part of the two commercial bodies of the city on the matter remains to be seen.

The Merchants' Asociation also at its meeting yesterday heartily concurred in the efforts on foot by the city administration to provide a crematory or other plant for the disposal of the city's garbage and waste. The matter was regarded as highly important to the health of the community and the Association desired to go on record publicly as favoring the immediate establishment of the plant.

SESSIONS AT BEACH

School Superintendents of Nineteen Counties Gathered at Wrightsville Beach—Scholarly Address by Dr. J. B. Carlyle—Other Notes.

A scholarly address by Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, in the auditorium of the Hotel Tarrymoore, on Wrightsville Beach, closed the first day's session of the Association of County School Superintendents of the Southeastern district of the State last night. There was a good attendance and Dr. Carlyle spoke with great interest and power. He was heard with infinite satisfaction, not only by members of the Association and their families, who are guests at the beach, but by a great many Wilmington people who went down on the evening cars for the address.

The second annual session of the Association was called to order at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the Tarrymoore, and a goodly number of the nineteen superintendents was noted by the secretary. Prof. Washington Catlett, of New Hanover. Prof. Catlett delivered a very cordial address of welcome to the visitors and the response was by Prof. F. T. Wooten, of Columbus, vice president of the Association. The president is Prof. C. W. Howard, of Lenoir. Following the preliminaries, the programme of discussion was entered upon, and there was a very interesting and profitable interchange of views upon the several subjects suggested.

Superintendent E. J. Barnes, of Wilson, led an interesting discussion on "Compulsory Education," and Prof. S. M. Brinson, on "Co-Operation of Superintendent and Committeemen for the Betterment of the Schools. In the afternoon "What Shall the Superintendent do When He Visits Schools Under Him" was discussed by Mr. Ira T. Turlington, of Johnston county. and others. All of the discussions were very geneally entered into by the superintendents in attendance.

To-night the feature address will be by State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, of Raleigh, and the general public is invited to hear him. The address will take place at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Hotel Tarrymoore.

Prof. Carlyle, who spoke last night is accompanied to the seashore by his wife and children and will spend some time as a guest at the Tarrymoore. Another prominent visitor is Prof. M. C.

NOVEL SUIT TALKED

Brunswick Man Wants Damages For Burial of Corpse on His Premises

HERE TO CONSULT LAWYERS

Sailor Occupied His Premises Without Authority and When He Died Was Buried After Inquest In His Front Yard.

The gamut of novelty in damage suits everybody thought was about run to the limit, but yesterday there appeared in Wilmington a complainant with a cause of action. one would dare say, that has no parallel in the history of the country. And as is always the case, there is a difference in opinion among attorneys as to whether or not the man is entitled to recover.

A Mr. Henry, who recently abandoned his plantation in Brunswick county and removed to New Hanover, near Wrightsboro, was the complainant, and the circumstances of his proposed suit for damages are about as follows: When Mr. Henry removed from Brunswick county, he closed up his home on his farm and left no one in charge. A few weeks ago an English sailor from one of the vessels trading at Wilmington was stranded here and went over in Brunswick on a tramp about the country. Coming upon the unoccupied house of Mr. Henry, he immediately deposited his belongings therein and took up his permanent abode there, undisturbed by any one, as no one was in charge of the premises. After a few weeks the sailor died, alone in the house, and his death was not discovered for days afterwards when the neighbors were annoyed by disagreeable odors emanating from the house. An investigation resulted in finding the body of the sailor in the house in a state of decomposition. A magistrate was called in and an informal inquest was held, a verdict being rendered that the stranger came to his death from unknown causes. The body necessarily had to be interred at once and without further ceremony the remains were buried in the front yard and near the door of Mr. Henry's house. Recently, when Mr. Henry attempted to sell or rent the house, he found it impossible to get any one to live in the dwelling on account of the interment of the sailor at the door, superstition being largely at the bottom of the objections to living in the house. Mr. Henry consulted attorneys to ascertain if the county of Brunswick could not be held in damages for burying a body there upon the orders of its acting coroner and a jury of citizens, officers of Brunswick in that capacity. One attorney gave the opinion that the county was not responsible for the actions of its officers and agents acting in a governmental capacity, as was decided in the Supreme Court in a case from Wilmington several years ago. Other attorneys took the contrary view and Mr. Henry may yet institute suit to determine whether or not a count, through its coroner or acting coroner, can bury a dead man at his front door.

Gave a Melon Party.

Mr. Frank R. King, of the firm of Roger Moore's Sons & Co., gave a delightful watermelon party last night at 9 o'clock at his office on Water street, complimentary to a number of young lady and gentlemen friends. Mr. King's unstinted hospitality upon the occasion was a source of much pleasure and delight to those who were so fortunate as to be his guests.

Back With the Consolidated.

Mr. W. E. Beaton, who has been with the Fruit Growers' Express in Rocky Mount, N. C., for some time, has returned to the city and taken a position on the suburban line of the Consolidated Company. Mr. Beaton is well up on the street railway business and will prove a valuable addition to the already clever corps of conductors on the beach line.

Advertisements to follow reading matter, or to occupy any special place, will be charged extra according to the position desired.

TESTING THE GRANDFATHER CLAUSE.

There seems to be a movement to upset, if possible, the grandfather clause of the suffrage amendments to the constitutions of several Southern States. The movement, of course, is up North, and some influential Republican papers will lend their aid and influence, little knowing that such agitation will not only not benefit the negro, but will do him harm. For instance, the Philadelphia Press (Rep.) says:

"Secretary Taft, in his declaration at Greensboro that schemes to disfranchise the negroes without excluding whites would not stand the test of the Fifteenth Amendment, has given new importance to the efforts making to test the 'Grandfather Clause.'

"The 'Afro-American Council,' which meets in New York next October, has for its first task the preparation and requisite financial support of a case to test the Grandfather Clause so directly that the Federal Supreme Court cannot evade it. Nothing can be more important.

"The meeting held in New York last week for the purpose of interesting negroes in this work should be followed by similar meetings wherever negro audiences can provide the means to further this work. Irritating political agitation is of no value in an issue like this. What is needed, and all that is needed, is the careful legal preparation of a case which will test the question, whether it is possible, under the Constitution, to apply a test which works only by race instead of one which is applied to all American citizens alike."

People who are opposed to the grandfather clause do not stop to think that it does not discriminate on account of the color or race of any voter's grandfather. Both races can come under the grand-father clause if their grandfathers were voters before a given time.

ARIZONA STATEHOOD QUESTION.

It appears that both the Democrats and Republicans of Arizona refuse to be influenced by President Roosevelt's appeal to vote for the consolidation of that Territory with the Territory of New Mexoco into the State of Arizona, under the enabling act of Congress at its recent session. Democrats in Congress inveighed against the unholy alliance, and if Arizona rejects Statehood the Republicans will be responsible, because they made Statehood on a condition that is utterly repugnant to the people of Arizona. The Brooklyn Citizen says:

"It was clear enough from the very start of the proposition to combine Arizona and New Mexico in one State and thus admit them to the Union, that the people of the former were practically unanimous on their opposition to it; yet, for some reasons which were satisfactory to themselves, but utterly ignored the popular will—a common practice of Republicans in these days—the President and Speaker Cannon exerted themselves to the utmost to force the enactment of the bill intended to admit the two Territories named as one State and Oklahoma and Indian Territory as another, and only permitted the adoption of the Foraker amendment prohibiting the combination unless both Territories voed for it this Fall, because they could not prevent it.

"Since Congress adjourned, they have sought notwithstanding all this to influence the people of Arizona to bend to their will, the President going so far as to write a letter for publication urging Arizona to vote "aye" on the proposition. But now another stinging rebuke of this official interference with public sentiment and this disregard of the wholesome reasons already sufficiently made known to account for it, is administered by the special meeting of the representatives of both the Republican and Democratic parties at Phoenix, Arizona, yesterday, and the appointment of a joint committee with instructions to do what may be done to defeat joint Statehood. New Meyico may do as it likes, but Arizona will go it alone."

LIVING AND COST OF WAGES.

The Buffalo (N. Y.) Courier makes this teling comment:

"In the words of the Washington dispatch relative to the expected report of the Commissioner of Labor, "there does not seem to be any good reason for the advance in the prices of manufactured articles unless it is that the trusts are enabled to control the proce of the domestic article.' Nor is there yet ocular or otherwise discernible proof that the trusts are influenced by the various prosecutions to make the burden of the public any easier. One interesting official theory is that the large increase of gold production in recent years has had the effect of raising prices because a dollar is really not worth as much as it was, and its buying power is therefore reduced; but, if this theory is sound, it would logically seem that the people should have more money in their pockets with which to buy."

The "various prosecutions" by the administration at Washongton are being worked to the advantage of the Republican party in the campaign. It is the duty of any administration to enforce the laws, but compelling corporatoons to obey the laws does not affect the power which the trusts have to burden the people with their high prices under a protective tariff. The people should keep in mind that a reduction of the tariff will be the only thing that will strike at the root of the evils from which they hope to get relief.

SLAVE TO WHISKEY FOR 34 YEARS

Well Known Physician Drank Up Large Fortune and Faced Ruin

WAS FINALLY REDEEMED

It Was Done Through Keeley Treatment and He Praises It For Restoring Him to His Family and Business.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

I am sixty-eight years old. For thirty-four years I was a slave to whiskey, rarely ever breathing a sober breath. I resolved several times to quit, but every time I passed a saloon the temptation came, and I yielded. It seemed that I was drawn in by an irresistible current. I had drunk up a large fortune; lost all respect for myself, and had completely thrown myself away My health failed; I felt I could not live a month. My loved ones and friends finally prevailed on me to try the Keeley Cure, and in April, 1892. I arrived at Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C., drunk, of course. I was fifty years old at that time, having spent the best of my life drinking whiskey. In a few days after my arrival at Keeley a change came over me, the craving for whiskey was disappearing. I felt better than I had felt for years, and at the end of one month I had no more desire for whiskey than if I had never tasted it. It has been twelve years since I left there, and I have never tasted whiskey, brandy, or any other intoxicant, and never expect to take another drink. It relieved me from all strong drink or drugs. restored my nervous system to its normal condition, and reinstated me to my home, family and business. I was a physical, moral and financial wreck when I went to Keeley; to-day I am free from all desire for strong drink, am perfectly sound and enjoying the best of health, all of which I owe to Keeley. It did for me what no living man could have done—cured me of drinking whiskey. It saved my life. It is the only salvation for the poor drunkard.

The manager and physician are attentive and courteous, and your every want is promptly satisfied. I advise everybody who is addicted to either whiskey or drugs, to go to Keeley Institute, Greensboro. N. C., and be cured. I was a slave to whiskey, but am now free and enjoying the confidence and respect of everybody, and have established a good practice in my profession, all of which I owe to the Keeley Treatment.

MOB SPIRIT GROWS.

The Greensboro Industrial News remarks:

"Formerly men were lynched for rape. Now men are lynched for murder. If the lynching habits keeps on growing the courts will soon be compelled to confine their attention to appeals from the magistrates in cases of simple assault or disorderly conduct."

There is no doubt that the mob spirit grows. Any one lynching is bad enough, but one of the evil effects of a lynching is that it really appears to be contagious. The horrible effect spreads from one community to another, and unless the spirit is restrained it may become a custom for a certain class of people to rise up and take the law in their own hands even when the cause is of a trivial nature. There is where another solemn responsibility falls on the shoulders of men who lynch for any cause. They become responsible for demoralizing social conditions in other communities.

DIFFERENCE IN PRINCIPLE.

Says the Philadelphia Press (Rep.):

"We must confess to a feeling of surprise that our pessimistic fellow citizens, the anti-Imperialists, have not as yet regaled the public with a whine or a yawp over the killing of a lot of murderous Pulajanes by American troops. But it is not too late yet."

In a case like that the anti-Imperialista have a right to kick because the number of Pulajanes killed is entirely too small for the opportunities offered to the troops. It is hardly necessary to remark that the principle involved in a Republic's domineering over other people without their consent has nothing to do with the killing of Pulajanes when it becomes necessary to put them out of business. The anti-Imperialists look at the inconsistency of our pretending to be governed by the declaration of independence and violating it in persisting by force of arms in governing people "without the consent of the governed."

THE AMERICAN REVIEW OF REVIEWS.

The current number of The American Monthly Review of Reviews is verily the reader's harvest. The variety of contents is exceeded only by the interest and importance of the matter itself. The articles and discussions are by strong writers, and if there is anything else that the Review of Reviews is famous for it is that it keeps one right abreast of matters of human interest in the world's affairs. To mention what this great magazine contains would be like trying to list the freight of an argosy, when you remember that besides all its other features, Dr. Albert Shaw. the editor, alone discusses fifty-two subjects in his "Progress of the World." The fact is, the magazine educates the reader in the leading events of the world. It is sent for $3.00 a year and sells at 25 cents per copy. Address The Review of Reviews Co., 13 Astor Place, New York.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—There is a report in circulation that Col. N. A. McLean might be persuaded to be a candidate for the State Senate from Robeson county.

—A charter has been granted the Durham Hosiery Mills, No. 3, Incorporated, at High Point, to manufacture hosiery and knit goods of all kinds, capital stock $200,000, Julian S. Carr, Jr., being the principal stockholder.

—Robeson Institute will open its fall session September 3d. The selection of teachers so far is as follows: Mr. R. E. Sentelle, principal; Miss Mary Watson, primary, and Miss Christine Gower, music teacher. The other departments will be filled by competent teachers.

—Rutherfordton Special, Aug. 7: A number of railroad contractors from different parts of the country were here Saturday and Sunday looking over the line of the South & Western between Marion and this point, with a view to bidding on the construction work. They came over the route from Marion here. From all indications there will be something doing along this line of railroad at no distant day.

—A dispatch from Barber's Junction, Rowan county, on Tuesday says: Caldwell Barber, a negro, man living in the Cleveland section of this county who has commented considerably on the Lyerly family murder and the lynching of the Gillespie negroes and Jack Dillingham at Salisbury last Monday night, was arrested to-day by Deputy W. A. Thompson and carried to Salisbury, where he was placed in the county jail. This negro made threats, or rather remarks, to the effect that "there would be more families left in worse condition than the Lyerly family." A warrant was sworn out for the negro and he was placed in custody, pending an examination.

—Union City, Tenn., Special to Charlotte Observer, Aug. 7: At last the long-drawn-out and hotly contested breach of promise suit of Miss Lola Walker, of Asheville, N. C., against Col. Wick Edwards, of Union City, Tenn., has dragged its weary course to a close. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the jury, after being out obaut two hours, rendered a judgment for $21,000 in favor of the fair complainant. Judge R. E. Malden will open court Wednesday to hear any motions that may be presented. Nothing is known as to what course the defendant. Col. Edwards, will take. It is thought the suit has already cost him $10,000. It has been on trial for 32 days and the sheriff of this county, Obion, estimates the cost to tne county a $1,500. Everybody draws a long breath as much as to say, "I'm glad it's over with."

TWINKLINGS.

—"With all your wealth, are you not afraid of the proletariat?" asked the delver in sociological problems. "No, I ain't," snapped Mrs. Newrich. "We boil all our drinkin' water."—Philadelphia Record.

—She—You remember, dear, that five hundred dollars you gave me the other day to put in the bank? He—Good gracious! You haven't run through with that, have you? She(indignantly)—Certainly not! I have nearly fifty left.—Town and Country.

—"Here's a letter from a woman," said the answer-to-correspondents editor, "who wants to know how to make a lemon tart." "That's just like a woman," rejoined the snake editor. "Tell her if the lemon isn't tart to begin with. she's better consign it to the dump and let it go at that."—Chicago Daily News.

—Muggins (reading paper)—Another instance of race prejudice in Ohio! Jorkins—How terrible! Where was it this time. Muggins—In Toledo. An attack was made late yesterday afternoon on the poolrooms.—American Spectator.

—"I see that a German wise man, Dr. Emil Reich, says that baldness is due to the stifling of the imagination." "Well, well, that's strange. I know several baldheaded clubmen who frequently get home in the early morning hours and the excuses they make seem to indicate the possession of imagination of the highest order."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—The multi-millionaire was very considerate of the strange young man's welfare. "Ah. my poor brother," he said in silky tones, "are you serving mammon?" "No, good sir," replied the young man, as he reached in his pocket. "I am serving subpoenas." With a wild leap the multi-millionaore reached his motor car and vanished toward the State line.—Chicago News.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Mrs. Sallie Pridgen, who it is claimed was 105 years old, died Friday at her home near Lumberton. She is survived by several sons and daughters.

—The Corporation Commission, at Raleigh on Tuesday, passed an order for a union depot to be built at Apex. It is to be built by the Seaboard Air Line and the Durham and Northern. The two roads come together at Apex and a union depot is badly needed at that place.

—There was another murder at the Southern Railway double tracking camp at Jamestown, near Grensboro, late Tuesday afternoon. Charles Hairston, colored, shot and killed another negro in about as cold blooded manner as was the killing of Foreman Beacham there last Tuesday. The murderer escaped.

—Noah Church, aged 25, of Wadesboro, a brakeman on the Danville division of the Southern Railway, was instantly killed at Lexington Tuesday afternoon by a north-bound freight, the engine of which struck him as he attempted to get out of the way of another train.

—Why is it that Norway is constantly increasing her merchant marine and built sixty-five steamers besides sailing vessels during the past year, and yet she pays no subsidy? Is it because Norway has a tariff for revenue and the United States stands pat for protection that fosters trusts and high prices?—Schnectady Gazette.

—Lumberton Correspondence: The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad has put into effect a new schedule for the operation of trains between Fayetteville and Columbia. Heretofore the train has been run from Elrod, a station about 35 miles south of Fayetteville, to Columbia and return, but as the result of recent efforts on the part of the citizens along the route the service has been extended to Fayetteville

—Announcement is made that Mr. Alfred Settle Dockery and Miss Mary Scales Ledbetter, of Rockingham will be married in November. The bride is a charming, cultured and attractive young woman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ledbetter. Mr. Dockery is one of the most prominent young men of the State ,an able lawyer and a clever man. He was a Democratic member of the House in 1903 and made a fine record.

—One of the leaders of the Salisbury mob Monday night was an ex-convict from Montgomery county, who has done time on the roads and is a notorious law-breaker. It is amazing how zealous the criminal classes are for the enforcement of the laws—against all excepting themselves. There is a record in the history of this State of one of the most bloodthirsty of a mob which once lynched a negro having been afterwards lynched himself.—Charlotte Observer.

—A few days ago, Mr. Bryan demanded the head of National Committeeman Sullivan, of Illonois. Saturday the primaries were held in Chicago and the result puts Sullivan in control of the Democratic party in that city. He will go to the convention with the solid support of the Cook County Democracy. Perhaps this endorsement of Sullivan is not meant as a reply to Mr. Bryan's demand. but it looks a little bit suspicious. It shows, at any rate, that Sullivan is pretty well entrenched and will be a hard man to oust.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—The Jamestown Post (Rep.) wonders: "Has it ever occurred to Speaker Cannon and his associates on the Republican side of the House that they may 'stand pat' once too often?" Evidently it has not; and the surrender of Governor Cummins in Iowa, the one-time zealous opponent of the existing tariff schedules, indicates that in the G. O. P. stand-patters are rulers of all they survey. Any voter who desires to revise the monopoly tariff will make himself simply ridiculous, if hereafter he votes the Republican ticket.—Albany Argus.

Several days ago it was announced that General J. S. Carr, of Durham, had practically bought the property of the Centaur Knitting Mills of High Point, but not until Monday was the deal closed. It is Mr. Carr's intention to enlarge the mill and operate it as one of the largest hosiery mills in the State, being known as No. 3, of the Durham company's string of hosiery mills. A representative of the Durham company will be in High Point this week to take charge of the building and prepare for the enlargement.

—That lynching at Salisbury last night was the wildest and most disorderly demonstration that has shamed the good State of North Carolina in many years. It will be necessary to shoot some of these ruffians before we can hope to put an end to mob law, but no blood will be shed when the lynchers understand that troops sent to guard the jail and its prisoners will do their duty at the expense of human life. We take no stock in this talk of an investigation in so far as it will bring punishment to the guilty. One farce in North Carolina does not justify another.—Raleigh Times.

—Before Judge Boyd in the United States Court at Greensboro on Tuesday, in the case of the government against the Old Nick Williams Company, the bill of exceptions was settled making out the case on appeal. The government was represented by District Attorney A. E. Holton, of Winston-Salem, and the defendant company by Mr. E. T. Cansler, of Charlotte, and ex-Judge Charles A. Moore, of Asheville. The bill of exceptions is a long one. It will be remembered that the case against the company, N. Glenn Williams and others, was tried at Greensboro several months ago, and the company fined and taxed with costs.

—The negroes of High Point had a big time Monday night on the opening of the new opera house and office building erected for them by Mr. J. W. Harris, of that city. The playhouse is known as Edmundson's opera house and on Monday night a free entertainment was given as an opening number. Edmundson, the lessee, is a negro barber and is a leader among the "aristocracy" of his race. The building is located in the heart of that portion of the town inhabited by negroes and contains store room d offices and while filling a want among that race will prove a money maker for the owner.

—Lumberton Special, Aug. 7: A matter that was creating considerable interest and talk here in political circles was decided at a call meeting of the Democratic County Executive committee held here today. The meeting was held at the request of petitioners who asked that a primary be held to nominate candidates for the county offices instead of making the nomination by county convention. After discussing the question pro and con the committee decided by a vote of twelve to six not to grant the request of the petitioners. The committee further decided that the township primaries nominate delegates to the county convention to be held Saturday afternoon, Septemuer 1st, at three o'clock, and that the county convention be held the following Thursday, September the 6th.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Virginia and Maryland have selected Septefber 12th as the date for the inauguration of actual work upon the State buillings to be erected by those commnwealths at the Jamestown Exposition, and following the action of the Virginia and Maryland commissions fixing the same date for the breaking-ground ceremonies, the North Carolina Jamestown Commission will be asked to do likewise. On that day, as already arranged, Governor Swanson, of Virginia, and Governor Warfield, of Maryland, will be in Norfolk and the central figures of the corner-stone-laying ceremonies. It is desired to have Governor Glenn there also, and the North Carolina Commission, which meets in Raleigh September 4th, will be strongly urged to select that date too. There is one obstacle that may prevent this State from participating on that date, however, as the commission has not organized, and only eight days would be left for receiving and considering bids and arranging the details.

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average,	10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average	10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average	5 pr. ct
Total,	25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

AS WE LIVE WE GROW

In values and in stock. This is the Mid-Summer season but we have lots of new and pretty things to show. We have just placed on sale, about four hundred pieces of Nos. 60, 80 and 100 in plaids and fancy Dresden ribbons; regular price from 15c to 25c per yard, our price 10 per yard special.

We have five hundred new umbrellas, one hundred ladies' and one hundred men's, are made of the best paragon frame with a copper wire rivet, cloth the best cravenette rain proof cloth, with fancy handles; goods that would be cheap at $1.25 or $1.50. Our price for the ladies' is 89c and for the men's $1.00.

We have fifty sample rolls of matting. It is newly imported goods, each roll different from the other and is better goods than the ordinary stock as it is goods that is sent to this country as samples only, and is 25 per cent. cheaper than regular matting.

This matting runs in price 15c, 18c, 20c, and 25c per yard.

We have two rolls of 40-in wide hemp carpet. It is reversible patterns, one side being carpet pattern and one side matting pattern. Goods that is worth 35c per yard and we are showing it for 25c per yard.

In our millinery department we have received a beautiful line of silk hats and braid hats, goods that are up to date and pretty. They come in all shades and different prices from 75c to $2.25 each.

To ladies who wish pretty plumes either full length or 3-4 size, I would like to show them some samples. I have all colors and prices from $1.00 to $6.50 each.

Our flower stock we will sell for 25 per cent. less than first price.

We think the best muslin underwear is sold in the city by us.

We handle nothing but The Royal Underwear and every garment is well made, every seam doubly stitched and our prices are as cheap as any ordinary goods The best place to buy it is where you can get the best goods for the least money and we ask you to look at ours. We have garments for all prices from 25c to $1.00 each. We have them finely trimmed up as high as $3.50 each.

Tailor Made Skirts—As the Fall season is approaching we have secured a big line of ladies' skirts and I feel quite sure that you will find them cheap.

In white or cream mohair skirts we have some special values. We have about three different styles and the skirts were made to sell from $3.50 to $5.00 each; we are offering these skirts from $2.00 to $3.50 each. We also have a nice line of colored skirts from $1.50 to $7.50 each. We bought from a factory a few days ago about 80 skirts which were slightly imperfect at a great reduction and we can sell you these goods at 25 per cent. less than manufacturers' cost. They are all this Fall styles and new goods while the imperfections are oftimes so small that you would not notice them, for instance a $5.00 skirt would be about $3.00 or $3.25. This is a good chance to save money and that is what every one wants.

Boys' Wash Suits to Close Out—I will allow next week 10 per cent. discount on all good that I sell in this line. They were already very cheap but we bought too many for the size of the town and must reduce the stock. I will also offer a discount of 10 per cent. on all mohair, sicilian and serge coats for men. These are all new goods, but we consider it better to lose the 10 per cent. profit than to carry them over.

For your Fall Dress Goods in fine qualities and new styles, we propose to lead the city. The best way to prove it is to examine our line before purchasing elsewhere.

With us it is a problem where to put our Fall stock when it comes in. Our store is already full and for the next few days we will receive hundreds of cases of general merchandise. We buy from large factories and they deliver their Fall goods early and we are in a position to sell you goods this season as cheap as we ever sold them in our lives.

I want to say in relation to your dress goods bill; whether you live in this city or a thousand miles off, and you want the best goods and the prettiest styles, I ask you to give me a showing. All persons wishing dress goods samples will send 5 cents for postage, as we do not care to give the samples indiscriminately as it costs both money and the postage.

We want your Fall business. We give you the best goods for the money and premium stamps with every purchase. Our premium department is a beautiful place. It looks like a fairy corner and think! we give those things away without cost to the purchaser. Ask to see this department. Do your trading with us and get something pretty.

Remember, Geo. O. Gaylord's Department Store,

LOCAL DOTS.

—The C. W. Polvogt Company lost a valuable horse from lock jaw yesterday.

—The steamer Wilmington will make a special trip to the pier to-night for the benefit of those who would like to enjoy a moonlight ride on the water. The boat leaves at 7:45 P. M., and the fare is only 15 cents for the round trip.

—Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "There was still excellent water in the Cape Fear at 8 o'clock this morning. The steamer Tar Heel arrived last night, and left this morning. The steamer Lyon is expected up to-day, but is behind time, presumably from heavy freight.'

—There was only one case for the consideration of the Mayor yesterday. Sandy Johnson, the negro wounded by a convict guard Monday as he was fleeing from Officer I. F. Huggins, was charged with highway robbery of an excursionist at the Carolina Central depot early in the season. He was bound over to the higher court under bond of $1000 which he could not give and went to jail. Two of the negroes implicated in the same robbery were given terms on the roads at last week's term of the court. A fourth is yet to be arrested.

INCREASE OF ABOUT $200,000.

That Much Will be Added to County Tax Books in Improvements.

The tax assessors of Wilmington township, Col. Walker Taylor, Capt. Louis Belden and Mr. T. O. Bunting, have completed their work of assessing the improvements to real property in the city for taxation for the current fiscal year, as the law requires, and find an increase of somtehing over $200,000. Next year there will be an entirely new assessment of all property and a much larger increase is expected. The assessment this year is very gratifying and would have been larger but for the fire on Front and Dock streets some time ago, destroying the Vollers building and the Willard Bag Factory, neither of which properties had been rebuilt by the first of June. The tax listers at work on computing the county tax books have until September 1st to complete their labors.

FUNERAL OF LATE J. M. BUNTING.

Will Be Conducted To-morrow Morning—Members of Family.

The funeral of the late Justin M. Bunting will be conducted from the residence at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery. The news of Mr. Bunting's death was received with great sorrow by a great many friends and acquaintances to whom it came with a great shock yesterday morning. A large number of callers at the home during the day attested the very high esteem in which he was held by the general public.

Mrs. H. F. Wilder, a sister of the deceased, with Mr. Wilder and Miss Etta Wilder, of St. Stephen's, S. C., their guest, had just reached Atlantic City to spend a vacation when news of the death of Mr. Bunting reached them yesterday afternoon. They telegraphed at once that they were leaving for the return to Wilmington and will reach here this evening. Mrs. Murphy, another sister, of Birmingham, Ala., was out of the city, and could not be reached by a telegram yesterday but it is hoped that she can be reached to-day in time for her to arrive in time for the services.

An advertisement in the Star will pay you.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Work of Text Book Commission—Incendiary Fire—J. C. Drewry.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 8.—The Sub-Text Book Commission at work the past month examining school books offered by publishers for adoption in the public schools of the State completed their work last night and filed their report with Gov. Glenn for the Text Book Commission composed of the State Board of Education this morning. The report is voluminous, covering their findings in the examination of all books in every branch of study. The Text Book Commission will now go through these reports and, beginning August 21st, will hold special sessions for the purpose of hearing all publishers who desire to be heard on the merits of any books offered for adoption. The board consists of the Governor and State Council, Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General.

Deputy Insurance Commissioner, W. A. Scott, returned to-day from Arden, near Asheville where he procured a true bill by the grand jury against Chas. Presley, who is charged with burning his store to get the insurance. Presley has left the country, but every effort will be made to apprehend him.

The case of a probable incendiary fire at Merry Oaks, this county, is now being investigated by the Commissioner, but no arrest has yet been made.

Mr. Jno. C. Drewry, who won such a signal victory in the Wake primaries recently in the race for the Democratic nomination to the State Senate, gave a big barbecue and Brunswick stew to a large party of friends and supporters this afternoon at his farm near the city. People came from every part of the county.

Miss Matilda Haskett Dead.

Miss Matilda Haskett, for many years a public school teacher in this and other counties, passed away yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at the James Walker Memorial Hospital where she had been under treatment for asthma for twenty months. Miss Haskett was 59 years of age and leaves a number of relatives to mourn their loss. The remains will be taken to Rosindale, N. C., for interment this morning.

HARNETT DEMOCRATS.

County Convention At Lillington. Strong Ticket Is Nominated.

Dunn, N. C., August 8.—The Democrats of Harnett county met in nominating convention at Lillington at 11 o'clock yesterday, and adjourned at 7 o'clock in the evening, there being an immense gathering, which taxed all the seating and standing room in the court house, the number present being estimated at from 1,000 to 1,250.

The following nominations were made: For the Senate, W. T. Harrington; for the House, J. C. Clifford; for Register of Deeds, H. C. Stewart (preference for these three was expressed in primaries); for Sheriff, Jas. Lanier (6th ballot); for Clerk of Superior Court, Floyd Taylor (53rd ballot); for Commissioners. G. K. Granthan, J. T. Smith, T. A. Harrington.

ROBBED WHILE IN POLITICS.

Former Postmaster of Chicago is a Bankrupt.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, August 8.—F. E. Coyne, former postmaster and a well known figure in political affairs, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy to-day, the Chicago Title and Trust Company taking charge of the bakery and lunch room business in which he was engaged. The petitioning creditors were the Eckhart & Swan Milling Company, A. Hempstreet & Co. It is said that the embezzlement of a large amount of money by a former employe while Mr. Coyne was postmaster was indirectly responsible for the failure.

The Mecklenburg Mineral Waters,

Chase City, Virginia.

The waters possess remarkable powers. The Lithia Water found there is second to none, and the Chloride of Calcium Water is unique. Such a combination, to my knowledge, does not exist anywhere else.

It is needless to speak of the applicability of these waters. Their analysis will make their uses plain to every physician. They are already widely known to doctors, throughout the country, and their virtues will be recognized.

Many wonderful cures have been wrought by them—a fact well known to me personally asd through other physicians.

Yours very sincerely,

HIGHHAND ACT OVER ELECTION

Colorado Judge Sends Four Prominent Republicans to Jail for Contempt. Election Boxes Kept From the Sheriff.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Denver, Col., August 8.—Refusing to be sworn in the franchise election contest case in the Denver County Court, George N. Ordway, president of the City Election Commission; Henry L. Doughery, president of the Denver Gas and Electric Company; Fred A. Willis, formerly chairman of the Republican Central County Committee, and J. Cook, Jr., a real estate dealer, were committed to the county jail to-day by Judge Ben B. Tindsey until they paid fines of $500 each for contempt of court.

William Lail and Theodore Griffin, watchers appointed by the election commission, who forcibly prevented Sheriff Alexander Nisbet last night from getting the ballot boxes which Judge Tindsey had ordered Nisbet to bring into court, were fined $25 each.

The ballot boxes wanted were delivered to the sheriff to-day after Justice Bailey, of the Supreme Court refused to interfere with the contest proceedings in the county court. The ballot boxes were opened and the ballots obtained.

STARTLED CARLYLE.

How Charles Godfrey Leland Brought the Cynic to His Senses.

Charles Godfrey Leland said that on his first meeting with Carlyle the wise man showed himself in a somewhat cynical frame of mind, from which he was aroused only by a bit of wholesome opposition.

"And what kind of an American may you be—German or Irish or what?" Carlyle asked.

"Since it interests you, Mr. Carlyle," replied Leland, "to know the origin of my family I may say that I am descended from Henry Leland, a noted Puritan, who went to America in 1636."

"I doubt whether any of your family have since been equal to your old Puritan great-grandfather," growled Carlyle, and this, combined with some slurring remarks which he had previously thrown out in regard to America and her history, roused Leland's spirit.

"Mr. Carlyle," he said deliberately, "I think that my brother, Henry Leland, who got the wound from which he died standing by my side in the war of the rebellion, was worth ten of my old Puritan ancestors. At least he died in a ten times better cause. And allow me to say, Mr. Carlyle, that I think in all matters of historical criticism you are principally influenced by the merely melodramatic and theatrical."

Carlyle looked utterly amazed and startled, though not at all angry.

"Whot's thot ye say?" he cried in broad Scotch.

Mr. Leland repeated the remark. A grim smile as of admiration came over the stern old face. It was with a deeply reflective and not displeased air that he replied, still in Scotch.

"Na, na, I'm nae thot," he said. And he dropped into a milder strain and made the interview an occasion to be treasured long in memory.

AN ELECTION TRICK.

One Sample of the Dodges to Which They Resort In England.

Canon J. George Tetley tells the following story of the late Justice Denman, who in 1865 ran for election at Tiverton, in England. He was advertised to address the electors on a certain morning. In order to fulfill his engagement it was necessary for him to leave by the 9:15 express. He had taken the precaution of ordering a cab overnight and was quietly eating an early breakfast when attention was called to two or three men who seemed to be hanging about in the neighborhood of his house. He thought little, however, of the matter, but presently sent his servant to put his luggage on the cab, which was due to arrive. The cab approached the door, but before the portmanteau could be located one of the mysterious strangers jumped in and was driven rapidly away.

And when this happened a second time it became evident that something very definite was intended. So Mr. Denman consulted his watch, and, directing his luggage to be sent after him, he buttoned his coat and, calling to his aid all his old Cambridge training, took a bee line for the station. He met not one empty cab till too near the terminus to be of any service to him. He dashed through the "booking office" on to the platform, seized the handle of a carriage door as the train was actually starting and flung himself into a compartment.

On arriving at Tiverton he found his committee in a state of extreme anxiety which gave place to astonishment and relief on his appearance, for the walls of the town were covered with placards warning the Liberal electors that their candidate would not keep his engagement to address them.

Peasant Member of Russian Paliament Caught Red-handed Inciting and Paticipating in Revolt—Trying to Control Parliament.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, August 8.—M. Onipko, the peasant member of the late Parliament, who was captured red-handed at Cronstadt after the mutiny there, will be tried, it is said officially, according to the rules of war for inciting and participating in armed revolt, the penalty for which is death. The authorities are convinced that they have a good case against M. Onipko and hope that it will involve several other prominent extremists in the late Parliament to such an extent as to prevent their e-election to any future Parliament.

The ministry already is beginning a far-reaching campaign preparatory to the election of a more tractable Parliament in December. The ministry insist upon a programme that will consist of promulgation of definite reforms and the nomination of candidates who will represent these instead of letting the elections go by default as was the case in the defunct assembly. They disclaim all intention of attempting to throttle public sentiment, but it is noticeable that their first step was taken through the police, who were asked to report on the possible governmental candidates for seats.

The session of the cabinet to-day was devoted to measures of famine relief, which is recognized as one of the most urgent problems in the administration, as well as being an eloquent campaign argument. It was decided to recommend to the Emperor an additional credit of $27,500,000, in addition to $7,500,000 voted by Parliament for this use, $25,000,000, of which sum is to provide food and employment to keep the stricken population from starvation and the remainder for the purchase of seed grain.

The official Telegraph agency tonight reports the formation at Rekaterinoslav of a reactionary organization, whose purpose is to exact life for life for every official killed by the revlutionists. The murder of the ex-Deputy Hertzenstein is an example of this procedure.

SLAYING JAPS FOR POACHING

speedy trial of the twelve Japanese who were taken prisoners. The prompt action of this government to-day in notifying Ambassador Wright, of Tokio, of the acts as reported by Solicitor Sims, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, was designed to give to Japan information first hand of the occurrence. After a careful investigation by the Japanese charge here, the conclusion was reached that the case was one involving no international incident.

Beau of Fort Sheridan.

Once a man who had the reputation of never having been beaten for the position of orderly came from another regiment. Private Haarscher and the newcomer, as luck would have it, were detailed for guard the same day. The whole garrison turned out to see which one the adjutant would pick for the coveted place. To all outward signs there was no difference in the neatness and soldierly appearance of the two men.

The officer spent about twenty minutes examining the rifles, belts, cartridge boxes and brasses of the two soldiers. There was absolutely nothing to choose between them in point of neatness of appearance. Finally, as a last resort, the adjutant unbuttoned the blouse of the new claimant for orderly honors. He found a somewhat faded but absolutely clean undershirt.

The officer passed to Haarscher and undid three buttons of his blouse. Haarscher had on a brand new suit of silk underwear that must have cost him a month's pay. It was the other man on that day who walked past post in the hot sun, while Haarscher did "lolling duty" in the shade in front of the commandant's quarters. He was a Frenchman through and through, and he was more proud of it than of anything else save the American citizenship which he had won by enlisting under the American flag.—Chicago Post.

Woodcraft.

Woodcraft holds the key to nature's storehouse. A camper should know for himself how to outfit, how to select and make a camp, how to wield an ax and make proper fires, how to cook, wash, mend; how to travel without losing his course or what to do when he has lost it; how to trail, hunt, shoot, fish, dress game, manage boat or canoe and how to extemporize such makeshifts as may be needed in wilderness faring. And he should know these things as he does the way to his mouth. Then he is truly a woodsman, sure to do promptly the right thing at the right time, whatever befalls. Such a man has an honest pride in his own resourcefulness, a sense of reserve force, a doughty self reliance that is good to feel. His is the confidence of the lone sailorman who whistles as he puts his tiny bark out to sea.—Outdoors.

MASS MEETING IN WASHINGTON

Citizens Opposed to Building of Railroad Bridge Over Pamlico River. Captain Johnson's Views Asked. Sentiment Was Unanimous.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)

Washington, N. C., August 7.—A large and enthusiastic mass meeting was held in the court house last night for the purpose of considering the important question of allowing the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound railroad to cross the Pamlico River below the city, permission for which has been granted by the Secretary of War.

There have been four mass meetings held here to consider this question and at each meeting the consensus of opinion was adverse to the railroad in their desire. At two of the meetings Captain Johnson, of Wilmington, chief of United States Engineers, met the citizens, and he on both occasions stated emphatically that the proposed bridge would be a menace to navigation. Notwithstanding the opinion of Captain Johnson and his report to the War Department, the Secretary of War saw fit to grant the railroad the concession, this too, in the face of the action taken by the citizens

Although the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad has commenced the construction of the bridge the opponents have been quietly at work to stop them and last night they showed their hand with the result, that the railroad will have to look to its laurels if it wins out.

An opinion was read to the meeting from Judge James E. Shepherd, of Raleigh, stating that it was his opinion and this was backed up by many decisions, among them one from the United States Supreme court that the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad had no right to cross Pamlico River. The charter of the railroad gives them the privilege to cross Tar River and not Pamlico.

A committee was appointed to canvass among the citizens and business men to solicit funds with which to fight the road. Several strong and enthusiastic speeches were made by Messrs. A. W. Styron, E. S. Simmons, J. Havens and others.

The following resolutions were introduced:

Whereas we view with alarm the attempt of the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad Company in violation of its charter right and against the wishes of our people, to bridge the Pamlico River below the town; and,

Whereas, we, the people, believe it will endanger the future growth and prosperity of our town if the bridging of Pamlico River below the town is permitted,

Resolved, First, we, the people in mass meeting assembled for the fourth time enter our solemn protest against the proposed bridge by the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad being built below the town in violation of its charter right and against the will of the sovereign people.

Resolved, second, That the board of navigation for the port of Washington is hereby requested to bring suit against the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad Company, restraining and enjoining it from building the said bridge across Pamlico Rier below the town.

The above resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice. The people seem to be thoroughly aroused over this matter and those in opposition propose to test the right of the railroad to cross the river below the town in the face of the people's will to the fullest extent of the law.

ELOPER KILLED IN EARTHQUAKE

Terrible Fate of Truant Wife Who Deserted Her Husband and Fled to San Francisco With Another Man.

Kenosha, Wis., August 7.—The pathetic ending of a sensational elopement from Kenosha a year ago was brought to light yesterday when letters received in this city announced that Mrs. Frank Machaceke, of this city, and her daughter, Ada, 11 years old, had been killed in the San Francisco earthquake.

Mrs. Machaceke was the wife of one of the best known foremen in the big Allen tanneries here, and deserting her husband she left the city in company with Carl Friedrick, another foreman in the tannery. The couple fled with the girl to California, and some time ago Machaceke got a divorce and was awarded the custody of the daughter.

He started to secure the daughter, when he discovered the woman and daughter were dead. Deserted by the man with whom she left Kenosha. and for whom she had a left a home of luxury, Mrs. Machaceke met with terrible retribution for her crime.

Some time before the earthquake she had gone to a cheap lodging house in the stricken city, and the bodies of the woman and her daughter were found under the debris. Machaceke will make an effort to secure the bodies and have them brought back to Kenosha for burial.

THE BEGINNING OF A HONEYMOON

[Original.]

Corinne and I became engaged in January and two months later fixed our wedding for the following June. We did not live in the same city and could not see each other except every few weeks. I was not tied down to business and would have gladly removed my residence to be with her oftener, but her hard hearted father said that if I did he would withdraw his consent to our marriage.

We were thus obliged to pass long days, weeks, months, apart, and the separation was well nigh unbearable. In March we fixed the 10th of June for the day on which to end this agony, and from the time of settling upon it at the top of every letter I wrote to Corinne, morning and evening, I gave the number of days to be passed before the arrival of the happy day. The number decreased with provoking slowness, as minutes drag to one looking at the face of a watch.

We were influenced by this distressing separation in the selection of a place in which to spend our honeymoon. I owned or would own on coming of age in a few months an island in the St. Lawrence river, on which was a nicely furnished country house. There was no way to get to and from it except by boat, and the nearest landing was a mile away. We determined to spend not only our honeymoon, but the whole summer, at this place, not returning till November. There, with no one to interrupt our continued association, the happy days would drift along like the water of the beautiful river surrounding us.

We were married at my father-in-law's country place on the Atlantic coast. A suit of rooms was reserved for us in case we could be later prevailed upon to spend some time with the family, but we begged them not to refrain from inviting other guests on our account, since a whole summer spent alone would not be long enough to make us forget the cruel separation we had endured.

I confess that on reaching the island with my bride I was somewhat disconcerted to find there something akin to the spirit of loneliness. Of course this was in the place and not in me. How could I feel lonely with Corinne? Corinne said nothing, but I judged from the expression of her face that this weird something which hung over the place had also affected her. We arrived at 5 in the afternoon and sat down to dinner at 7. There didn't seem to be anything to amuse us while waiting, and we were both glad when it was announced. At table Corinne looked sober.

"You are thinking of your mamma, dear?" I said.

"No; I think it is the transition from so much excitement."

"That'll wear off. You will soon become accustomed to a more natural existence."

She made no reply to this, but spooned her soup as though her appetite was not of the best. I glanced out through the window and the river looked sort of desolate. I rarely drank wine, but now I concluded to open a bottle of claret. I was relieved when the maid brought it in and sorry when she left.

I had long been picturing how we would sit after dinner together in the long twilight in a hammock swung on the piazza, the beautiful St. Lawrence rolling past us, the scene occasionally enlivened by a passing boat. I had thought how delightful it would be not to have to part at a certain hour, and I was surprised that that spirit of loneliness which had pervaded the island on our approach overhung the river. For fear my feelings would be communicated to Corinne I roused myself to remark enthusiastically:

"What a beautiful scene!"

"Beautiful," came the reply. It reminded me of an echo, repeating the form without the spirit of the original sound.

We were taking our first lesson in the universal principal that blessings cannot be appreciated without opposition, or, stated differently, anticipation is better than reality.

At any rate we had never before in our lives passed so long an evening together.

The next morning a rowboat approached. We were delighted at any interest in us from the outside world. A messenger brought us a telegram from my matter of fact father-in-law.

If you find it lonesome, come back.

I read the message aloud to Corinne and looked up at her. There was a wistful look in her eyes, which were gazing at vacancy.

"Well," I asked, "what do you think?"

"We might give them the month of September."

"The days begin to shorten in August."

"I didn't think of that," repressing something like a shudder.

"I fancy June and July will be all we'll care to stay here."

"It grows hot in July. That's the time for cool sea breezes on the coast."

"You're right. Better make it the 1st of July. Shall I send a reply to that effect?"

"Oh, no. I can write."

At luncheon I saw that my bride was preoccupied and asked her for her thoughts.

"I was thinking how delightful the seashore is at the full moon. That will be in a week from now."

"We might start in a week."

"Or in a few days."

"How much time would you need to get ready?"

"Oh, I could get ready to go by the night train," she replied at once and with the only enthusiasm I had noticed in her since our arrival.

"Very well. We'll go tonight."

And we went.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 8.—The cotton market was fairly active to-day, sales being estimated at 200,000 bales and while fluctuations were somewhat irregular the general tone was steadier, with the close steady at a net advance of 4 to 7 poonts. The market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 3 points, and in spite of rather lower cables than due, sold up to a net advance of 6 to 7 points inside the first half hour on private reports of heavy rains in the northern part of Texas. During the late morning the market fluctuated under liquidation, which sent prices back to within 2 or 3 points of last night's close. Late, there were a number of private crop reports from Northern Texas, parts of Indian Territory and Northern Louisiana, claiming considerable damage as a result of recent weather and complaining of increased trouble with insects on which the market sold up to a net advance of 10 to 11 points, but reacted toward the close under room selling in an effort to shake out early buyers. Southern spot markets were unchanged to ⅛ lower.

Receipts at the ports to-day 7,093 bales against 5,972 last week and 9,286 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 33,505 last week and 53,143 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 816 bales against 2,359 last year, and at Houston 493 bales against 2,522 last year.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Wilmington People Know How To Save It.

Many Wilmington people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a Wilmington citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy:

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front street, and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt a valuable remedy for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo. N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

SLAYING JAPS FOR POACHING

United States Guards Kill Five While Taking Seals in Alaska Waters

WERE KILLING FUR SEALS

Crews of Ten Japanese Schooners Slaughtering Seals on St. Paul Island—Japanese Government Informed of the Affair.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, D. C., August 8.—Acting Secretary of State Bacon has sent to Ambassador Wright at Tokio the substance of a dispatch received by the Department of Commerce and Labor from Solicitor Sims at Sitka, Alaska, regarding the killing of five Japanese fishermen and the capture of twelve others on St. Paul Island. In sending the dispatch the Acting Secretary states that it is forwarded for the purpose of giving information such as this government has, of a regrettable incident, news of which may reach Japan in distorted form. There is no intention of offering an apology or any further regret than is contained in this dispatch, as the State Department regards the Japanese fishermen as poachers, if they were within the three-mile limit, and the dispatch from Mr. Sima emphasizes this fact.

The dispatch as forwarded to Tokio in substance says:

"The fur seals on St. Paul Island were raided by crews from Japanese schooners July 16 and 17, killing two hundred seals. Five raiders were killed and twelve captured, including two badly wounded. The raiders were repulsed through the courageous action of Chief Agent Lembky and Asistant Agent Judge at the head of native guards. The schooners were easily within the three-mile limit. A crew of six landed at North East Point July 16, were surprised and captured by Lembky's guards without casualty. July 17 two native watchmen shot and killed two and wounded one of an armed landing party. Crews, protected by a dense fog, shot seals in water close to shore most of the day. The same day the crews of at least three schooners made concerted raids on widely separated rokeries. At Sea Pandi they were repulsed by native guards after considerable firing. At North East Point, during a dense fog, 200 seals were killed by an entire ship's crew in five boats, Later they were finally repulsed by Lembky, Judge and a native force, and three raiders were killed and five captured. The seals killed on shore were mostly pregnant females, nursing young, and those killed in water seeking food for young. Some of the raiders state that they are from the captured schooner Teriai Maru, No. 2, and other prisoners say they are from the schooner Mei Maru. Solicitor Sims says he frequently sighted a schooner within the three-mile limit and that eight or ten schooners believed to be Japanese, are sailing in close to the island. Twelve prisoners were taken to Kodiak and held for the grand jury.

The Japanese charge, Mr. Myacka, called at the State Department today for information about the killing of the Japanese. He had received no dispatch from his government concerning the affair, and Acting Secretary Bacon gave him the information which was sent to Ambassador Wright. Mr. Myaoka said that it was not a case to cause an international incident.

No international incident can result from the shooting of the Japanese poachers, it is said at the State Department. This government has no amends to make to Japan, other than those that courtesy may prompt, and a mere expression of regret that such an incident should take place is all that is looked for.

Japan has no treaty obligations which in any way require her to protect seals in the Bering Sea. The United States, Great Britain and Russia are the only nations bound by the treaty to offer protection in the Bering waters and these three countries must, according to the terms of the convention to which they have subscribed, patrol the waters in that part of the world and exercise every possible precaution to prevent their subjects from poaching.

The government of the United States will take no further active interest in the matter of the killing of the Japanese poachers, except that the twelve prisoners must be tried by United States authorities.

Our Government's Position.

Washington, August 8.—Although taking the position that the killing of the five Japanese poachers within the territorial limits of the United States in Alaska was justified, this government in all probability will extend to Japan its regrets for the fatal clash between the native lookouts of the North American Commercial Company and the Japanese raiders.

This statement was made by Acting Secretary of State Bacon to-night. Meantime, the district attorney for Alaska is making preparations for the

THE OIL TRUST IS INDICTED

Grand Jury at Chicago Returns Many True Bills Against Standard

FINES AGGREGATE $380,000

Company Charged With Receiving Rebates From Railroad Companies. Was not Made to Pay Storage, But Competitors Had to Pay.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, August 8.—An indictment charging the Standard Oil Company with receiving rebates in the form of non-payment of storage charges to certain railroad companies was returned to-day by the Federal grand jury before Judge J. S. A. Betha this afternoon. The indictment came as a surprise, inasmuch as the grand jury had just begun the investigation today. The Standard Oil Company is the only defendant, no official of the company and no railway company or officials being named. The bond of the defendant was fixed by Judge Beatha at $25,000. This is the case investigated by the grand jury in Cleveland, O., where it was found that the grand jury had no jurisdiction. The testimony taken there was transferred to Chicago and the documents in evidence were identified by witnesses who testified in Cleveland. It was on this testimony and evidence that to-day's indictment was returned so quickly.

The grand jury immediately resumed its session to take up the investigation of the charge that the Standard Oil Company was given direct rebates by some of the railroads.

The indictment contains nineteen counts, each count constituting a separate charge. The true bills come under the Elkins law, which provides a fine of from $1,000 to $20,000 for each violation. Under this indictment, should the government procure a conviction on the trial of the issues, a fine of $380,000, as a maximum under the Elkins law, may be assessed.

The indictment allegea that by a system of granting the Standard Oil certain concessions the Oil Company benefitted to the extent of $8,100.52 during a period of time from August, 1903, to February, 1905. The indictment, as explained by the government's attorneys, means that in nineteen instances certain consignments of oil for the Standard Oil Company were stored by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, and that the railroads received no payment of five cents per ton per day from the oil company for such storage, but that its competitors were compelled to pay this amount. This is equivalent to granting a concession, it is charged, the non-payment of the storage charges being practically a rebate in favor of the oil company. Each count sets up a discrimination of from $300 to $500 a month in favor of the oil company. It will be necessary for officials of the Standard Oil Company to appear in court and present bond of $25,000 for the corporation.

By order of Judge Bethea a second grand jury was drawn late this afternoon and summoned to apear next Tuesday morning. This body will take up the investigation of the business methods of the Standard where the present inquisitorial body was compelled to leave off. The second jury will begin its investigation with March, 1905.

HARTJE CONSPIRACY CASE.

Husband and Two Others Bound Over for Defaming Wife.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., August 8.—Augustus Hartje and his friend, John L. Welshons, who with Clifford Hooe, the former negro coachman of Hartje, who are charged with conspiracy in connection with the Hartje divorce case, appeared before Alderman F. M. King to-day for a hearing and waiving all procedure were held for court under bonds of $3,000, which was furnished by Attorney Edward G. Hartje, a brother of one of the defendants. Their arraignment has been postponed several times owing to the disinclination of the commonwealth to go into the matter until the divorce case was finished. Hooe, who is now in jail awaiting trial for perjury, did not appear, but was represented by Attorney Hartje.

Boniface Natar, Lord Abbott, of St. Marys Abbe, Buckfastleigh, Devonshire, England, and another prelete belonging to the abbe were on board the wrecked steamer Siro. As nothing has been heard of them, all hopes that they escapes, have been given up.

MUTUAL LIFE'S FREEZE OUT PLAN

Tried to Keep Policyholders' Committee From Getting List of Policyholders

COURT ORERS IT TO BE DONE

Present Management of Company Attempting to Secure Election of Their Own Trustees—Lawyer Untemeyer Denounces Them.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 8.—The Mutual Life Insurance Company was ordered by Justice Giegerich to-day to furnish a correct list of its policyholders to the International Policyholders' Committee and to file a similar correct list with the State Insurance Department at Albany within ten days. The order was issued in response to an application for a writ of mandamus made by Col. A. M. Shook, of Tennessee, a member of the committee and was opposed by counsel for the Mutual Life Insurance Company. Justice Giegerich denied the application of the policyholders' committee that their circulars be sent to policyholders on the stencils prepared for the company.

In his argument on behalf of the petition, Samuel Untemeyer, counsel for the committee, said that they had employed twelve postoffice experts to assist in getting the committee's circulars out to policyholders and that nineteen per cent. of the envelopes were returned to them undelivered. On the other hand, he said, the company, having a correct list, are sending circulars to the policyholders without delay, in an effort to influence votes in favor of the trustees nominated by the present administration ticket of the Mutual.

"A more infamous, unheard of performance has never found its way into a court of justice," declared Mr. Untemeyer. "We have only until September 18th to nominate a list of thirty-six directors and unless we can obtain a correct list of policyholders we can not reach them and many of them will be disfranchised from voting. We are in peril of not being able to nominate a ticket unless the facilities we demand are granted us."

Mr. Brewster, of counsel for the Mutual Life Insurance Co., in opposing the motion said that the company was not bound to supply the list week by week as Mr. Untemeyer contended, but to supply one list, which had been done. It is needless to say that the personnel of the Mutual is not what it was during the executive investigation," he added. "I think," interposed Justice Giergerich, "that the policyholders should be placed in a position to receive the very latest information on all matters affecting their interests. I think that, as the law recognized the right of the policyholders to govern, they should have the right to govern."

During a sharp exchange between Mr. Untemeyer and Mr. Brewster, Mr. Untemeyer said, "My friend has said that the company is not the same as it was during the investigation. No, a few scapegoats were sacrificed by the main power, but the men who are responsible for all the scandals and thievery of this company are in power to-day."

Justice Giergerich said he would issue the order desired except in so far as it applied to the use of the company's stencils.

VALUABLE RACE HORSE DEAD.

Rams Horn Won $25,000 Race at Brighton Beach Last Year.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 8.—Rams Horn, a 4 year old colt by Bute-Aunt Tessa, winner of this year's $25,000 Brighton handicap, and of last year's Crescent City Derby at New Orleans, died today in his stall at Gravesend race track of inflamation of the bowels. Rams Horn had been ailing ever since the Brighton handicap and was too ill to be shipped to Saratoga where he was entered in the richest stakes. Rams Horn was generally conceded to be the best horse sent out of the West in many years.

NEGRO REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN

South Carolina Convention Turned Down White Man.

Columbia, S. C., August 8.—The Republican State convention met here to-day to elect a State chairman and re-organize the executive committee, The only contest in the convenion was the selection of a chairman. The faction led by John G. Capers, supported Ebmund H. Deas, negro, who was elected by a vote of 88 to 26 over John R. Tolbert, supported by a faction headed by District Attorney Ernest F. Cochran. Capers and his friends were in complete control of the convention.

Resolutions were adopted congratulating the country on its continued prosperity, commending the work of both Houses of Congress and the "patriot" President of the United States. It was decided not to put out a State ticke.

CHICAGO BANKER RANK CRIMINAL

Conclusive Evidence That President of Chicago's Looted Bank is Wantonly Guilty

FRAUDS FOOT UP $1,000,000

Cashier Herring is Embezzler of Large Amounts—Detectives Hunting Fugitives—President's Property Turned Over by Son.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, August 8.—Theodore Stensland, vice president of the suspended Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, and son of the missing president of that institution, has come to the rescue of the 22,000 depositors, and tonight it is the general belief of those who are endeavoring to straighten out the affairs of the bank that there is an excellent chance for all to receive almost dollar for dollar when a final settlement is made.

Vice President Stensland to-night announced that he would, with full authority, turn over to Receiver Fetzer to-morrow all the real estate and personal property of Paul O. Stensland, his father. The son places a valuation of $600,000 on this collateral.

Conclusive evidence has been unearthed by State Bank Examiner C. C. Jones that Paul O. Stensland has been guilty of highly criminal acts in conducting the business of the institution of which he is the president. This was offically announced by Mr. Jones to-day. Henry W. Herring, the missing cashier, who was declared to be an embezzler of large sums of money, is being in a measure exonorated because of the lack of direct proof against him. "When I swore out the warrant for Mr. Stensland yesterday," said Mr. Jones to-day, "I was perfectly assured of the criminal nature of the acts of which the banker had been guilty. Against Mr. Herring I have no direct evidence. I can not say as yet precisely how far the frauds operated by Stensland have been carried, but it is to a great length—that is proved by papers already brought to light."

Mr. Jones confirmed statements that the frauds amount to over $1,000,000.

Detectives were sent to Michigan to-day in pursuit of Henry W. Herring, the fugitive cashier, who is said to have been seen there.

Receiver Fetzer said to-day he was beginning a rigid investigation of the forged notes in co-operation with Examiner Jones. It will be three or four days, said Mr. Fetzer, before he can get an adequate idea of the situation. He said persons who alleged their signatures to have been forged would be required to furnish absolute proof.

Paul O. Stensland and Cashier Herring are still at large.

Theodore Stensland, who was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with violation of the banking laws of Illinois, appeared in court today. By agreement, the hearing was postponed until August 18.
